WILFRED A. BEAUBIAH

30 June 1976
A retired Bell Canada employee, Wilfred A. Beaubiah, 56, of 577 Division street, who died recently at Kingston General Hospital following a nine-week illness, was buried in St. Mary's Cemetery.

He was born at Gananoque, a son of the late Robert Beaubiah and his wife, the former Catherine Goodfriend, but had been a Kingston resident for 30 years.

Mr. Beaubiah retired in 1971 from his position with Bell Canada and was a member of that company's fraternal organization, Pioneer Bell Canada. He was also the owner of Beaubiah's Pet Shop here.

Surviving are his wife, the former Jean Bartholomew; five daughters, Mrs. Fred (Sandra) Goulet, Ottawa; Mrs. Dennis (Sylvia) Hill, Mrs. Donald (Barbara) Stoness; Mrs. Roger (Judy) Smith and Mrs. Jerry (Linda) d' Entremont, all of Kingston; a son, David; and four grandchildren.

Additional survivors are three sisters, Mrs. Charles (Helen) Harris, Newton, N.Y.; Mrs. Stanley (Dorothy) Sharpe, Rome, N.Y.; Mrs. George (Margaret) Stewart, Seeleys Bay; two brothers, Charles and Bernard Beaubiah, both of Gananoque.

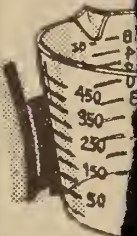

Another brother, Robert, predeceased him.

Pallbearers were Bell Canada employees Eddie Payne, Ivan Gilchrist, Lloyd Maybee, Don Ryder, John Berrigan and William Robb.

Dear Cousin church learned down or some such Feb 19-77

Here we go again - expect I told you we lost my Aunt Jan 28th - nice service & quite a few members of the family home. Now we are just back from our daughter's wedding, beautiful service and a real back - chicken supper, band, like the jungle drums, dancing & etc. Peg's two daughters - Kendy 16 and Karleen 12, were bridesmaids.
Thank Heavens the roads and weather co-operated & we had a lovely trip going and coming. Hee has been busy pruning our 3 trees and the neighbours as well & fixing fences and such like. I received more information from Betsey Powers, Town Clerk of Sudbury Mass - re Ball - most of it relating to the 1800's - If you have any proof that your Susannah was a sister of Shadrack, Samuel, Jacob & possibly a Solomon - then Jacob and Deborah "Belknap" Ball were her parents

"Jacob Ball born 1712, married Jan 9th 1749 - Deborah "Belknapp" of Sudbury. Resided in Framingham."

Children

Shadrack, born Feb 4th - 1749

Samuel, born May 8th 1752

Samuel may have emigrated to Newfane, Vt, and had a son born there.

Jacob born May 28th 1764, Newfane Vt. Possibly Solomon.

Does not give a Susannah.

The dates would fit in for Jacob & Deb to have had your Susannah, born 1762 between Samuel, 1752 and Jacob 1764

This write up gives Benjamin Ball and

and Mary Brewer as the Father & Mother of Jacob born May 28, 1712 (gives Benjamin as son of John Ball) and Jacob had a son Jacob May 28 - 1764 - this Jacob married m Elizabeth Stone -

It is too bad they didn't name any girls born to Jacob & Deborah - I can't find any James that would fit your date for Susannah ?? so - Jacob & Deb.
 Right !! There must be some way to prove Susannah was a sister of Shad, Sam etc. These last notes do not give any death for Deborah Ball.

Let me know if you get anything more on Susannah - the elusive Susannah I might add. Lots of them but no dates to co-incide. Have fun, be not discouraged, hope all are well at your house

One of the more noted Loyalist families was ~~Pruyn~~^{that} noted for having given the young province, and in particular the Bay of Quinte region many important members both political and professional, as well as just good plain men and women.

One of the more noted Loyalist families on the shores of the Bay of Quinte was that ~~settled~~^{settled} by Harmon Pruyn of ~~Dutchess~~^{Kinderhook} Columbia County, N.Y. Although the name is rarely seen in the present generation, one hundred years ago men of this name, both political and professional, were respected in many parts of the continent as well as the Bay of Quinte area. ⁶⁴ Through the years the family ~~has~~^{supplied} the community with ~~recesses~~^{mayors} and councillors, ~~mayors~~^{sheriffs} ~~with~~^{or their} deputies, members of Parliament, Doctors, artists, and authors and ~~and~~^{honest} hardworking ~~men~~¹⁰⁰ yeomen.

The originator of the American family was Frans Pruyn, of Dutch parentage, whose wife is said to have been Alida. They appeared in New Amsterdam before 1641, and removed to Albany in 1665. It is interesting to note that Frans could not take the oath of allegiance because he was a Papist. Four of their children baptized in ~~the~~ New Amsterdam are the remaining ~~main~~^{when on interest is given} were born in Albany. ~~These children~~^{the oldest Dutch church} ~~was~~^{the youngest} ~~one~~^{was} Arent, baptized May 24, 1688, in Albany. ~~He~~^{He} married Catryna Gansvoort on Nov. 21, 1714. ~~They were parents of~~¹⁸² ~~one~~^{she was daughter} of Harmense Gansvoort who was at Beverwyck (now Albany) as early as 1660. His wife was Maria Hendryke Conyn, ~~Gansvoort~~^{Gansvoort} was a trader and brewer. Arent Pruyn was Fire-master in 1716-17 and Constable in 1718-19 for the second ward of Albany. He learned the trade of smith. About 1736 he removed to Kinderhook, Benessee County, where on May 4 1736 he purchased the farm of Cornelis Schenckelhorn, now known as the Pruyn farm, for 150 pounds New York currency. Soon after he and his wife were admitted to church membership ^{in the Dutch at} at Kinderhook. Subsequently he became a landowner and Francis was baptized at the old Dutch Church in Albany, on Feb 2, 1724. He died Nov 26, 1783. He married Christina before 1748, who died Feb 16, 1805. They are buried in the old family burial ground on the Pruyn farm.

Harmon, named for his maternal grandfather Harmon Gansvoort, was also baptized in the old Dutch Church in Albany on Oct. 19, 1727. He married Jannetje at Kinderhook on July 10, 1758.

Harmon was of Tory tendencies during the American Revolution. In his obituary is found this statement: "Harmon Pruyn was banished from Kinderhook, 1777." Confirmation is found in the records of the Committee for detecting and defeating Conspiracies in Albany County as these entries will confirm.

Dear Dr. Burleigh L.

I hope you received in good order, the copy of the History of the County of Lennox & Addington, by Harrington, which I mailed, some weeks ago, now.

I have been examining your great gift to me - Jessup's Hengen, by Stuart. very closely, with much interest. The names in particular have a particular fascination for me.

I have been working over my application for U & L Society - (Bath Oct Branch) in order to complete every last detail that it is possible to muster. I need several ~~some~~ more birth, marriage & death dates - which I hope to have soon - I must visit Hanover, N. H. to get them - unless the weather eases off. over

I hope this will find you in good health and spirits - spring is nearing, and I'd like to drop by to see you soon, again.

my best

John Howell, Sgt-Major 2nd K.R.R.N.Y.
Richard Howell, b. 1715, emigrated from Wales to Sussex
Co N.J. He m. Anna O'Donnell, from Dublin

Died before commencement of Rev. War.
John, his only known son, was born in 1753, and when about 23 yrs of age moved to Johnston. He served under Sir John Johnson, and was present at the investment of Fort Stanwix and the defeat of Gen. Herkimer, and when Sir John was defeated, in 1780, by Gen. Van Rensselaer at Fort Mills. He received rapid promotion, rising to Sergt-Major (in 2nd K.R.R.N.Y.) and was eventually given a commission in Butler's Rangers.

On the termination of the Revolution, he and his regiment were stationed at Oswego, and while garrisoned there he married before the Peace, a German girl named Eva Catherine Sheets.

He came to Kingston, and between 1785 + 1787, the dates of the births of his children Mary A. and Jacob, he moved to Friedensburg, where he settled on 200 acres of land and built a windmill, probably one of the first mills propelled by power to be erected in Upper Canada; and subsequently sold to a settler named Russell. He remained in Friedensburg about 12 years, when he removed to Sophiasburg, where he must have settled before 1804, as six of his children were born there between 1804 and 1815.

Dear Cousin,

I was pleased to receive your recent letter with information on the Potter, Burleigh, and Perry families. We have had recent company from Fla, so I have been unable to concentrate on genealogies.

Today I have consolidated the information loaned to me on the Potter and Burleigh families which you will find enclosed.

The source of my information on the Perry Family was Margaret Perry Wilson of Odessa, Ont. There is no one living in that family now except a daughter-in-law of Margaret, Florence Wilson (Mrs. Meredith Wilson) of Odessa, Ont. She gave me the address of Crawford Smith of Bath, Ont., a Perry descendant and I have communicated with him. I believe Crawford or his father Perry Smith would be your best source of information on the Hogle family.

The Perry Genealogy starts with Anthony Perry, born in England in 1615, wife Elizabeth; Samuel Perry, wife-Mary Miller; Jasiel Perry, wife-Rebeckah; David Perry, wife-Margaret Dryer; Robert Perry, wife-Jemima Washburn; Daniel Perry, wife-Jane Williams. They had ten children.

I have looked at many genealogical records and the early generations are well documented. The later generations not so well. I have found marriage dates and names of spouse for children of Anthony and Samuel Perry which were not on the record given to me.

My concern is with the family of Daniel Perry, born Sept. 1, 1779 at Sorel, Que., married Jane Williams 1800. One son was Calvin Wooster Perry who married Catherine Lake Nov. 28, 1827. We have the Lake family records back to 1615. Margaret Lake married William Potter Oct. 1, 1818. This must be my connection with Harriet Burleigh Ryan on the Burleigh side. Alise (Ailse) Lake married Jacob Comer Feb. 2, 1829.

My Family Record, originally dated Sept. 6, 1847, is as follows.

	Birth	Married	Death
Calvin Wooster Perry	Oct. 25, 1801	Nov. 28, 1827	Apr. 17, 1871

Perry Hogle Died age 20

I believe Perry Smith and Crawford Smith of Bath are descended from Mercy Hogle Smith.

You may be wondering, "Who is this Helen Perry Smith who is writing to me?" I am no relation to the Smiths mentioned above except through the Perry line. I taught school before I married. My husband retired in 1958 as an engineer with the Diamond Shamrock Corp. of Painesville, Ohio. We have traveled extensively in the United States and Canada and have made two trips abroad. At present we own a mobile home in Largo, Fla., and spend six months of the year there.

My sister, Kathryn, lives with us here in Perry, Ohio, in the summer. She retired from teaching in 1960. She has made numerous trips to Europe and is especially interested in the Middle East. She conducted several trips to that part of the world after retirement.

The years are creeping up but we all have reasonably good health and hope to enjoy more years of travel and companionship.

In my former letter, to you I mentioned that Harriet Burleigh Ryan had spoken of Uncle Calvin in a letter to my father. She must have been referring to my great-grandfather, Calvin Wooster Perry.

Sincerely your cousin,

Helen Perry Smith

Dear Herbert:

I have been going to write to you for so long thought I had better get to it. My husband is out helping one of our grandsons who is moving down to San Jose from San Mateo. When one of the family moves everyone gathers to help out. I am a little past that now so I stay home to keep out of the way. I am 77 years old but for the past twenty years I have been a little on the disabled side. We were in a very bad automobile accident in which my brother's wife was killed and for a bit they thought I was dead also. However, I was very badly injured and was hospitalized for six months. I had two broken vertebrae and one between which crushed and they didn't think I would ever walk again. After some very serious surgery the neurosurgeon removed a small piece of bone which was causing pressure on the spinal cord and after that life came back and after a few months of therapy I was able to walk. I am slow but I get there, no limp or anything but having had a severe concussion I don't have as good a balance as I should but at least I can walk. After that I had cancer surgery and a couple of years after that I fell and broke my hip. So all in all I feel very lucky. Today is the 33rd anniversary of my mother's death. I still miss her very much I was very close to her all my life. She wasn't much over 74 when she died.

All our families are fine. One of our grandsons and his wife are expecting their first child any day now and that will be our tenth great grandchild. We had two sons who grew up, our oldest died when he was eight years old so from two sons we haven't done too badly keeping the family tree growing.

We have had a crazy winter this year. November had a little rain but not a bit in December and January and a little in February and March came in with a couple of rainy days with snow in the mountains around our valley but that is all and now we are back to spring weather which we have had all winter. From the weather maps on the TV I see that you have had plenty of winter up there as well as our northern states and New England states. All our spring flowers are blooming and all others full of buds. Camellias, azaleas and Rhododendrons are starting to bloom and some full of blooms and soon the yard will be a mass of colors.

I hope you are both in good health and enjoying apartment life. We have a duplex and will stay here as long as my husband is able to take care of the place. It gives him something to do. Write when you can,

Love,

Rose

An outstanding character whose name is met repeatedly in Loyalist circles was Josiah Cass. He is remembered well as being the schoolmaster in the refugee camp at Yamachiche, familiarly known as Yamachiche, ^{this camp} which was located on the north shore of the St. Lawrence about 9 miles west of Three Rivers, Quebec.

Josiah Cass was a fourth generation of his family in America.

DIES ON WAY TO THE FAIR

Charles E. Burley, of Bath,
Passes Away in Motor Car
Friday Evening.

Charles Edward Burley, a well-known resident of Bath, and for many years driver of the Bath stage, died very suddenly on Friday evening, about 7 o'clock, while on his way to the Kingston fair.

Mr. Burleigh had been in poor health for some time. With members of his family he was motoring into the city and when he had reached the floating bridge, he was suddenly taken ill and passed away. He suffered from heart trouble.

The late Mr. Burleigh was fifty-nine years of age and is survived by his wife and family. He was a native of Bath and had lived there practically all his life.

Dear Doc:-

It was good to see you last July, I hope you and Mrs. Burleigh are well. We arrived home safely.

I am enclosing the following:-

- a- a little booklet which you may, or may not, have at hand.
- b- copy of old family Chart I showed you (as promised)
- c- copy of references typed for someone else.
- d- notes on HAWLEY. Not sure if you have this.
- e- a note I had printed for members of Bradshaw clan.

Three other things:- 1. Macdonald Farm Journal August 1962 issue, has interesting article on U.E.L.'s of eastern Twps, Quebec. Write L.G. Young, Macdonald College, Que. for sample copy. (this is complete address). 2.-Genealogical Society of Utah (L.D.S.) Salt Lake City, has a Canadian Genealogist on staff-plus a Canadian section in records Dept. (Woul'n't it be wonderful to drive out some day and browse through their Mss. Library?) Fans are free to do own searching. 3. (from Father Gravelle) Robert John Elliot married Eliza Jane Burleigh about 1850 and lived in Pakenham (across river from here). He died in Portage Du Fort in 1868, after 2nd. marriage to Abigail Thomas.

Enough for now. Will send along the Cemeteries listed when I find time to copy same.

My GT. GT. Grandmother Bradshaw was Mary (Polly) Carter, 1799-1871, would like names of parents. Have you anything on this family? Was she a Charters of the old Fredericksburgh Tp. family around Hay Bay? Were they NEL?

Dear Mr Burleigh -

Your letter of Sept 30th rec'd so long ago. Sorry to not have ans. long ago but have been very ill was in Hosp for about a month but am home once more trying to cope. No I did not know any of your family as when I arrived Dad didn't visit at Verona much as his parents died when I can just remember and then my older sisters were old enough to care for me & I was left at home. I have been trying to think of the Rev. Ball you mentioned but there is a Bryce Ball, Godfrey, Ont. you might get the information you want from. also there is an Ezra Ball, Cloyne Ont. They all came from the Ball's at Vennachar. The Pioneer Club, Cloyne (Seniors) have put out 2 books I am sure you would be interested in. The first one called, "The Ox and the Ape," and the 2nd one was "Unto these Hills," which is mostly pictures of old digges, tools, furniture etc. & farms & old houses. Ezra Ball, Cloyne might be able to locate a copy too off those, if you wanted one. He is a school teacher there.

Sincerely

Eleanor Thiel

P.S. Glad you liked my book my daughter wants me to go on from where I left off.

FROM SALISBURY PLAINS

M. M. Wood, Member of the First Contingent, Writes Interesting Letter.

Maitland M. Wood, who was born at Hartington, Ont., who is now with the first contingent at Salisbury Plains, having gone from Brantford, has sent the following letter to his mother at Peterboro':
Salisbury Plains, England.

Dear Mother— Received your letters. I haven't kept a diary as yet, but I intend to get one as soon as possible.

I didn't have to walk from Valcar-tier to Quebec. We went by train. We sailed on S. S. Tyrolia, and we were one of the first to leave Qdebec, and one of the last to disembark in England. We waited in Dalhousie Bay for all the transports to get together, and were escorted by a number of battleships and cruisers. Some of them were so far away we could not see them, but we knew they were there.

We anchored the night after we left Quebec right near the spot where the Empress of Ireland sank.

I wasn't sea sick. We had drills when it wasn't rough. It was quite calm till we were in sight of England.
We were anchored in Plymouth Sound for over a week. We were five weeks on board ship. We landed last night at Devonport and marched about three miles to Plymouth.

The harbor at Devonport is full of men of war being repaired after naval battles. They work day and night.

There are very few men in civilian clothes. Every man who is able and out of work is a sailor or soldier.
The women clerk in the stores and do all kinds of work like that.

The people of Plymouth, mostly girls and older women, crowded right up to our lines and gave us their blessing, and some gave chocolates, tobacco and cigarettes and asked for our buttons or badges and Canadian coins for souvenirs. They were very nice to us. Everyone seems cheerful and they are sure of victory. We took the train from Plymouth to a little station I forget its name. At every station that we stopped, the people gave us apples and chocolates etc., and cheered us. We arrived at our station about two a.m., and marched to our camp, and we got here just as the soldiers encamped were getting up, 6 a.m.

That was a pretty stiff march for fellows who had been crammed aboard a ship for five weeks.

It is awfully damp here, so we have straw mattresses and wooden floors in our tents. They are building wooden barracks for us and we expect to move in them in a couple of weeks.

F. J. Holman, with the G.T.R., for 41 years and lately foreman of the bridge and building department of the Stratford division, has reired.

Back Out.,

Burleigh

Mar. 18, 1976.

Dear Dr. Burleigh, -

Needless to say, I was very pleased to receive your copy of the article in the "Chronicle and Gazette" regarding my ancestor. It was very precise language somewhat different from to-day's reporting.

This boy would have been Grandpa's older brother, as Grandpa (Silas) was born in 1838. He was the one who lived in Napanee and we used to drive over with horse and buggy to see Uncle Bill and Aunt Harriette when I was small and they were old.

I appreciate having this to put with my genealogy and Mrs. Burleigh's picture of Andrew Burley's house. I have sent a copy to Gordon. That newspaper must have been in the Archives.

Grandpa said that his uncle had owned part of the Steacy block in Kingston. He thought that he might be left some of his estate but it went to the other family.

Now I will tell you of a recent "falling-through-the-ice" episode, which happened last week.

Harold Martin was sick with the flu and Susie went down to get a pail of water out of the water-hole. She broke through and couldn't touch bottom but her feet went up under the ice. Her calls for help were heard by two men who aided her and took her up to the house. When I heard of it I telephoned her and asked how she was feeling. She said, "I could be better and I could be worse," as she had quite a cold. I asked if she had taken a warm bath to "thaw" her out and her answer was, to my astonishment, "No I changed my clothes and went down again for a pail of water." Is it any wonder that she caught cold?

We are leaving for Florida on Saturday. We would be there now but were delayed on account of Jack getting a cold.

Thanks again, and best regards to Mrs. Burleigh.

Yours sincerely,

Beatrice Roberts.

P.S.

My sister Nellie Brackinbury died last September. Two left out of four.
